

As a member of the German Academic Institute, you will receive assistance to access several academic, training and focused carrier opportunities.

1. Accessing scholarships and guidance through the process of International Education.
2. Assistance with Visa Applications and orientation support in new locations
3. Discounted Accommodation arrangements for students and other applicants abroad
4. Evaluation and Accreditation & Assessment of one's Academic documents
5. Expert information on most suitable course and career Development.
6. Expert advice on most suitable course and career variations
7. Newsletter every month - full of opportunities in various spheres and tips on developing a career.
8. Take advantage of networking opportunities while learning about exciting innovative techniques and trends.
9. Gain free access to educational tools specifically designed for students.
10. Communicate and collaborate with local and international fellow members in your area and in your field of interest.
11. Get access to academic text books and other provisions for free or at very reduced prices
12. Job board including jobs and paid Internships and professional job training
13. e-Mentoring
14. Invitations to local student section meetings, events and activities
15. Networking in-person and online
16. Student competitions
17. Financial aid and scholarship opportunities in Germany, USA and beyond.
18. Application process and consultation at very reduced administrative fees